The MARYLAND GAZETTE.

[XXᵗʰ Year.] THURSDAY, October 4, 1764. [Nº. 1013.]

L O N D O N, July 3.

LAST Friday Morning died, of an Inflammation in his Bowels, which turned to a Mortification, aged 72, at his Seat, at Prior Park, near Bath, Ralph Allen, Eſq; He was quite ſenſible and reſigned to the laſt, and ſo compoſed even in the moſt excruciating Pain, that he aſked his Phyſicians the Day before he died, when no Hopes of his Recovery remained, how many Hours they thought he might live, which they told him pretty nearly. He then thanked them for their Attendance, and deſired they would leave him. He was univerſally known to have lived in the conſtant Practice of every Virtue that does Honour to Humanity.—It is impoſſible, perhaps, for Words to expreſs the full Extent of his ſingular Merit. In every View of his Character, he appears excellent almoſt beyond Example. His ample Fortune, acquired in the Proſecution of a Plan of his own Invention for the Improvement of the Revenue of the Poſt-Office, highly beneficial to his Country, was ſpent in a ſplendid, but decent, Hoſpitality, and in the Relief of a great Variety of Objects of Compaſſion. To his numerous Servants and Dependants he acted the Part of a tender Parent. His Benevolence was indeed unbounded; and ſo ſecretly was it generally exerted, that the Amount of it will probably never be diſcovered. His public Charities were alſo very extenſive; and to the City of Bath in particular he was a moſt munificent Benefactor. His Loſs indeed is, in every Senſe, a public Calamity; for the King hath in him loſt a moſt faithful Subject, and his Country in general one of its higheſt Ornaments.

Yeſterday the Spaniſh Ambaſſador had the Honour of a long Conference with his Majeſty at St. James's.

We are informed that Mr. Pitt had a long Conference, a few Days ago, with Lord Bute.

July 5. On Sunday laſt died Mrs. Harris, many Years Miſtreſs of the Two Blue Poſts, oppoſite St. Anne's Church, Soho. She weighed upwards of 40 Stone, Horſeman's Weight, and was reckoned the largeſt Woman not only in England, but in all Europe; and equalled the late famous Mr. Bright, of Malden, in Eſſex.

Orders are given for three Companies of the Royal Regiment of Artillery, commanded by the Marquis of Granby, to be in Readineſs to embark for America.

July 7. His Royal Highneſs the Duke of York is expected to arrive in England about Michaelmas; and his Houſe in Pall Mall is ordered to be compleated by that Time.

July 10. Yeſterday at Noon came on before Lord Mansfield, at the King's Bench Bar, Weſtminſter, the Trial of M. D'Eon, for a Libel on his Excellency the Count de Guerchy, the French Ambaſſador; a ſpecial Jury was impannelled on the Occaſion; but no Evidence appearing on M. D'Eon's Behalf, he was found guilty; and Sentence is to be pronounced To-morrow, the laſt Day of Term.

On Saturday Night, at Ten o'Clock, died, in the 82d Year of his Age, at his Houſe in Piccadilly, the Rᵗ Honᵇˡᵉ William Pulteney, Earl of Bath, Viſcount Pulteney, Lord Lieutenant and Cuſtos Rotulorum of the County of Salop, F. R. S. and one of his Majeſty's moſt Honᵇˡᵉ Privy Council. He dying without Male Iſſue, the Title is extinct, and his paternal Eſtate devolves to his Brother, Lieutenant-General Harry Pulteney, who is alſo far advanced in Years.

July 12. We hear that on Saturday laſt an Appearance was entered for the Right Hon. the Earl of Halifax, in the Action brought by Mr. Beardmore's Clerk againſt his Lordſhip, and three of his Majeſty's Meſſengers.

We are informed that a few Days ſince died at his Farm in Devonſhire, Mr. Henry Walter, an eminent Farmer and Cyder-maker: Among the many Legacies which he bequeathed, having no Relations, is the following remarkable One: I give and bequeath unto John Wilkes, Eſq; late Member for Aylesbury in Bucks, the Sum of Five Thouſand Pounds, as an Acknowledgment to him, who bravely defended the conſtitutional Liberties of his Country, and checked the dangerous Progreſs of arbitrary Power.

Some Advices from Poland ſay, the laſt Check that the Caſtellan of Cracow received from the Troops of the Dyet, was much more conſiderable than was at firſt apprehended; for beſides a great Number killed, wounded, and taken Priſoners, the Caſtellan had the Misfortune to loſe 30 Waggons laden with Baggage. Many Ladies, and amongſt the Reſt his own Counteſs, Siſter to Count Poniatowſki, fell into the Hands of the Enemy, by whom ſhe was immediately ſet at Liberty, and conducted, under a ſtrong Eſcorte, to a Place of Safety. It was this heavy Blow that obliged him to retire with his Forces into Hungary.

When the Royal Academy of Sciences at Berlin met lately to celebrate the Anniverſary of the King's Acceſſion to the Throne, M. Formey, the Perpetual Secretary, opened the Aſſembly with the following Speech:

"Gentlemen, We are met to celebrate a Solemnity, the Return of which is a certain Proof of our Felicity. Whilſt we can ſay Frederick reigns, we ſhall have a Right to add, We are happy. If it pleaſes Providence to preſerve this auguſt Monarch, which we ſhall ever pray for with the greateſt Fervency, thoſe who ſhall be aſſembled here this Day Twelvemonth, will ſee the firſt Jubilee of the glorious Reign, into the 25th Year of which we are juſt now entering.

"In an uninterrupted Proſperity may glide away the 25 following Years, which will lead to the ſecond and grand Jubilee, at the End of which the Pruſſian Monarchy will have no leſs Foundation to extol the Age of Frederick, than all the other Monarchies, ancient and modern, have had to glorify the Ages of Cyrus, Alexander, Cæſar, Charlemagne, and Louis."

The Iriſh now Manufacture broad and narrow Cloths in ſuch great Perfection, that they will ſoon be able entirely to ſupply their home Conſumption, and they are ſold at reaſonable Rates, the Wool blue, grey, pompadour, &c. Broad Cloths being 17s. Iriſh, per Yard; and the beſt ſuperfine black, coffee, claret, and drab Colour, one Shilling cheaper.

By a Letter from Bengal, dated Dec. 24, 1763, we learn that Major Adams, who was then with his Army on the Banks of the River Carmanaſſarus, has wrote to Sujah Dowlah, the King of Delha's Vizier, into whoſe Country Coſſim Ali Cawn retreated after his late Defeat by the Engliſh Forces, that if he does not ſurrender him up, he will croſs the River, and deſtroy his Country with Fire and Sword; whereupon Sujah Dowlah wrote down for an Ambaſſador, and appointed one to treat with the Governor and Council. This Letter adds, that the newly-reſtored Nabob has given a very handſome Gratuity to the Engliſh Army for their late Services in his Behalf.

July 14. Wedneſday the Revᵈ. Mr. Entick ſhewed Cauſe, in the Court of Common Pleas at Weſtminſter, why the Action now at Iſſue between him and four of his Majeſty's Meſſengers ſhould not be conſolidated with another Action commenced againſt a Right Hon. Earl jointly with the ſaid Meſſengers; when the Court ordered the Rule to be diſcharged, with Coſts; and the Cauſe now at Iſſue is to be tried the preſent Sittings after Term at Weſtminſter-Hall, before the Right Hon. Lord Chief Juſtice Pratt.

N E W - Y O R K, September 24.

From private Letters by the Packet we are informed, that three Superior Courts of Admiralty are eſtabliſhed in his Majeſty's American Dominions, one of which to be at Quebec, of which one Mr. Gregory is ſaid to be appointed Judge, another at Halifax, Mr. Durell Judge, the other not yet known.

Yeſterday the Harriot Packet-Boat, Capt. Robinſon, ſailed with the Mail for Falmouth.

P H I L A D E L P H I A, September 27.

Extract of a Letter from New-York, dated Sept. 15, containing a more particular Account of the late Treaty, than has yet been publiſhed.

"Sir William Johnſon, at the late Treaty at Niagara, met with above 2000 Indians, the greateſt Number ever aſſembled on ſuch an Occaſion.—They conſiſted of Deputies from all the Weſtern Indians, with the Six Nations, who accompanied him, in order to ſtand the Army. The greateſt Part of the Weſtern Indians were well recommended by Major Gladwin, for their Behaviour in endeavouring to bring about a Peace, as well as for Services done by many of them, in protecting the Garriſons of La Baye and Michilimakinak. The Chain of Friendſhip was renewed with them, on Condition of their engaging to deliver up all their Priſoners, and make Reſtitution for the Traders Loſſes.—The Hurons of Detroit made Excuſes for their being concerned in the War, and ſaid they were forced to it by thoſe who were under Pondiac. They ſubſcribed the Treaty in Form, ceding to his Majeſty all the Land from Detroit to Lake St. Clair, along the Strait, and delivered up three Priſoners, which were all they had with them. The Senecas alſo ſubſcribed the Treaty in due Form, ceding to his Majeſty, for the Uſe of the ſeveral Poſts in that Quarter, all the Land from the Lake Ontario to Lake Erie, four Miles in Breadth on each Side the Strait. They alſo gave up a Deſerter, and fourteen Priſoners; and left two of their Chiefs as Hoſtages for the delivering up the two Headmen of thoſe Delawares that are in their Hands, with all the Priſoners they took. The Day that Sir William left Niagara, Colonel Bradſtreet ſet forward with the Forces under his Command, among which were above 500 Indians. It is, however, the Opinion of thoſe here, who are beſt ſkilled in Indian Affairs, that this Peace can ſubſiſt no longer than we cultivate it by a prudential Management of Indian Affairs; and that if we relapſe into our former Neglect of them, they will look upon their Agreement as void. Our Out-poſts, Convoys, Traders, &c. are too much in their Power; from one of which they cannot fail of obtaining Supplies ſufficient to give us much Trouble, and involve us in vaſt Expences."

Fort Bedford, Sept. 16, 1764.

"Yeſterday Col. Bouquet marched from hence with a large Convoy of Proviſions and Ammunition, on Pack-horſes, for Fort Pitt, and lay laſt Night at the Shawaneſe Cabbins.—To-morrow a Convoy of 60 or 70 Waggons is to follow, under the Command of Capt. Hay, of the Royal Artillery.—And the next Day the laſt Convoy of Pack-horſes, under the Command of Capt. Ourry, with the Rear of the Troops.

"It is hoped that theſe Convoys will all get up with very little Difficulty, as Captain Williams, Chief Engineer, precedes them with Workmen to repair the Roads. He has, with 200 Pennſylvanians, compleated, in four Days, a moſt excellent Waggon Road round the Sidling Hill.

"A Number of Volunteers from Virginia, are on their March to join the Army at Fort Pitt.

"Captain Macdonald is returned to Fort Cumberland from his Scout, without meeting any Enemy."

Captain Ourry, with the Rear of the Forces, was left, the 14th Inſtant, on the Top of the Allegheny Mountains, all well.

A N N A P O L I S, October 4.

They ſerve without Pay, and intend to meet Col. BOUQUET at Fort-Pitt, and go againſt our Enemy Indian Towns. May Succeſs attend them.

Saturday laſt, the 29ᵗʰ of September, being the Anniverſary for the Election of a MAYOR for this City, the Worſhipful JOHN ROSS, Eſq; was choſen Mayor for the Year enſuing.

The ſame Day WALTER DULANY, Eſq; was choſen an Alderman in the Room of JOHN BULLEN, Eſq; Deceaſed.

EDWARD DYAR.

CLISH, near ALEXANDRIA, VIRGINIA, September 21, 1764.

To be SOLD, purſuant to the laſt Will and Teſtament of John Colvill, Gentleman, deceaſed, on the 24th Day of April, 1765, at the Houſe of Mr. Arthur Charlton, in Frederick-Town, in Frederick County, Maryland, for Sterling Money, Bills of Exchange, or Current Money of Pennſylvania, Maryland, or Virginia, at the current Rates of Exchange,

A VERY valuable Tract of LAND called Merryland, in the ſaid County, containing 6300 Acres, lying along the Foot of the lower Side of the Shenandoe Mountain, and along the Banks of Patowmack River, within 12 or 15 Miles of Frederick-Town, where great Trade and Buſineſs is carried on. It is very convenient for a Dutch Settlement, as many of thoſe People live near and about it. It is well Watered and Wooded, and in the Neighbourhood of two large Iron-Works. It will be Sold altogether, or in Lots or Parcels of 500 or 1000 Acres, as may be moſt convenient to the Purchaſers; for one Half of which, a Year's Credit will be given (if deſired) upon giving good Security, and allowing Intereſt. A Plat of the ſaid Tract may be ſeen in the Hands of Mr. Charlton abovesaid.

A falſe and ſcandalous Advertiſement, publiſh'd in the Maryland Gazette, of the 6th of this Inſtant September, in the Name of John Patterſon, Agent for the Earl of Tankerville, to prejudice the Sale of the ſaid Tract, obliges me to obviate the ill Conſequences that may ariſe from it, by publiſhing ſuch Part of the Teſtator's Will as I judge may ſatisfy the Purchaſers of my Power to make them a good Title.

This Tract of Land called Merryland, is expreſsly deviſed to be Sold for the Payment of Debts and Legacies; and if the Money raiſed by it, ſhould fall ſhort to diſcharge them, I am expreſsly impowered by the Will to raiſe the Deficiency by a Sale of any of the Virginia Lands or Negroes, (deviſed to Lord Tankerville) as ſhall ſeem to me moſt expedient, except his Lordſhip, chooſing rather to prevent the Sale of any Part of the ſaid Virginia Land and Negroes, will aſſume upon himſelf the Diſcharge of ſuch Deficiency, and wholly quit, exonerate, and indemnify me, as Executor, therefrom.

Lord Tankerville is appointed an Executor with me, and the only Debts of Conſequence are due to Perſons in Great-Britain: I have Prov'd the Will, and given Security in this Country; He hath done neither; ſo that I am liable to the Payment of Debts; he cannot be compelled. I have wrote to him repeatedly to ſettle theſe Affairs in Britain, and ſave the Virginia Lands from Sale, or give me Bond and Security here, that I might be indemnified againſt the Creditors: But after waiting almoſt Nine Years for his Lordſhip's Determination, he ſtill declines giving me ſuch Indemnification; and the Creditors, now wearied with Delays and Diſappointments, have actually commenced Suits againſt me, even for the very Legacies which the Agent, Patterſon, ſo impudently aſſerts to be paid.

Out of Reſpect to his Lordſhip, I ſhall forbear, at this Time, mentioning his Payment of Debts and Legacies, or other Proceedings, except called upon by this ſagacious Agent to anſwer ſome other Eſſay of his Wit and Veracity.

I ſhould not have mentioned theſe Circumſtances, but to detect the Falſhoods in the ſaid Advertiſement to diſcourage the Sale of this Land, evidently not to my Diſadvantage, but his Lordſhip's, as it may force the Sale of ſome of the Virginia Lands or Negroes, which I have aim'd at preſerving to him entire.

It would afford very little Amuſement to the Public, and be very diſagreeable to me, to enter into an Altercation with ſuch a Perſon as Patterſon is well known to be: But this may be neceſſary for me to ſay, that I ſhall (GOD willing) at the Sale, produce the original Papers, together with an authentick Copy of the Will, under which I derive my Power (which will ſhew the Falſity of his Lordſhip's being appointed Reſiduary Legatee, as alſo that his Concurrence in the Sale is not neceſſary) ſufficient to convince any Purchaſer, that his Title from me cannot be impeach'd. When this is done, it may be a Queſtion, whether any Thing but invincible Ignorance, and matchleſs Effrontery, could influence Patterſon to peſter the Public with an Advertiſement, directly to the manifeſt Prejudice of his Principal, and replete with Stupidity and Falſhood.

THOMAS COLVILL.

N. B. The Plat, and an authentick Copy of the Will, will be lodg'd with Mr. Charlton in due Time.

WHEREAS there is a Diſpute between John Howard, Son of Benjamin, and the Subſcriber living in Baltimore County, in regard to the Title of Two Tracts of Land lying in Anne-Arundel County, on a Point of Patapſco River, and near the Elk-Ridge Landing. And as it hath been thought by many Perſons to be very convenient for Building a Town thereon, and as the Gentlemen of Elk-Ridge, and other Parts, have taken a great many Lots on the ſame, by Agreement with the ſaid Mr. John Howard, and as this Diſpute ſeems to put a Stop to the Building thereon, This is to inform the Purchaſers of the ſaid Lots, That if the Land ſhould belong to the Subſcriber, they ſhall have them as agreed for with ſaid Howard. And I further inform any Gentleman that inclines to purchaſe Lots, that it is a very fine Place for that Purpoſe, having ſeveral fine Cool Springs on it, and a large Old Field very level and dry, with the Conveniency of a Sea Trade, and a fine, rich, extenſive Country back of it, from whence is brought to the ſaid Landing, large Quantities of Tobacco, Wheat, Indian Corn, Hemp, Beef, Pork, and all other Articles for Merchandize.

Sept. 25, 1764. THOMAS JOHNSON.

A TRACT of LAND called BARNHILL, containing about 300 Acres, more or leſs, on which is an exceeding good Dwelling-Houſe, 28 by 28 Feet, with 2 Brick Chimneys, 4 Rooms on the lower Floor, and good Porches both before and behind, all lately finiſhed, and 4 Rooms above, not quite finiſhed, but may be for a very ſmall Expence; a Kitchen, Corn-Houſe, Stable, an Out-Houſe for Negroes, and 2 exceeding good Tobacco Houſes, with a good Apple and Peach Orchard, 20 Acres of which might with very little Trouble be made into a very good Meadow: There is likewiſe two good Plantations on the ſaid Land, with convenient Houſes for a Planter, and Orchards, which Rent for 1000 lb Crop Tobacco yearly, each.

Likewiſe a Tract of Land called Courts's Diſcovery, containing about 60 Acres, adjoining the ſaid Land.

WILLIAM KNAPP, WATCH-MAKER,

TAKES this Method to acquaint the Public, That he has provided an Aſſiſtant in the WATCH-MAKING BUSINESS, which will enable him the better to Diſpatch the Work of thoſe Gentlemen who have, and may employ him. He hopes his paſt Endeavours in that Way, may have anſwered the deſired End. Thoſe Watches which have been many Years in Uſe, and conſequently Wore, he will engage to Mend, as well as when New; and will at a very moderate Expence keep, thoſe he Repairs, in Order, for Ten Years, all Damages excepted which may accrue to 'em from Accidents, ſuch as a Fall, and the Breaking of a Main Spring, which the moſt diſcerning Workman cannot often Account for, nor the ableſt prevent.

He Makes, and will Supply any Gentleman with HORIZONTAL, SECONDS, or PLAIN WATCHES, and will engage the Quality to be equal to any Imported from LONDON.

ANNAPOLIS: Printed by Jonas Green and William Rind, in Charles-Street. All Perſons may be ſupplied with this GAZETTE at 12*s.* and 6*d. per* Year. ADVERTISEMENTS of a moderate Length are inſerted for 5*s.* the Firſt Week, and 1*s.* each Time after: And Long Ones in Proportion.
